

Davay, davay (Come on, come on)

Come on, come on blue wave,
Where did you bring us?
Come on, come on blue sky,
Protect me, protect me.

Come on, come on my mother sun,
Heal my grief forever.
Sing to me, sing to me my beauty,
Comfort me, comfort me.

Chorus:

The shores of the motherland,
The fields of the motherland,
Oh how I've missed you
In those days of loneliness.

Come on, come on silver moon,
Light up this impossible pathway.
In the deep forest I can not see the way,
Too my, oh so beloved.

God please believe in me,
I will open up my soul to you.
I will tell you all my secrets,
And my heart will be at ease.
